DEPARTMENT OF STATE

[Public Notice No. 2830]

Advisory Committee on International Communications and Information Policy; Meeting Notice

The Department of State is holding the next meeting of its Advisory Committee on International Communications and Information Policy. The Committee provides a formal channel for regular consultation and coordination on major economic, social and legal issues and problems in international communications and information policy, especially as these issues and problems involve users of information and communication services, providers of such services, technology research and development, foreign industrial and regulatory policy, the activities of international organizations with regard to communication and information, and developing country interests.

The guest speaker will be The Honorable Joel Klein, Chief, Antitrust Division, U.S. Department of Justice, to talk about current antitrust issues in the telecommunications and information technology arena.

In addition, the purpose of this meeting will be to hear reports from the working groups on various issues that chart the future direction and work plan of the committee. The members will look at the substantive issues on which the committee should focus, as well as specific countries and regions of interest to the committee.

This meeting will be held on Thursday, June 25, 1998, from 9:30 a.m.—12:30 p.m. in Room 1107 of the Main Building of the U.S. Department of State, located at 2201 "C" Street, NW, Washington, DC 20520. Members of the public may attend these meetings up to the seating capacity of the room. While the meeting is open to the public, admittance to the State Department Building is only by means of a pre-arranged clearance list. In order to be placed on the pre-clearance list, please provide your name, title, company, social security number, date of birth, and citizenship to Shirlett Brewer at (202) 647-8345 or by fax at (202) 647-0158. All attendees must use the "C" Street entrance. One of the following valid ID's will be required for admittance: any U.S. driver's license with photo, a passport, or a U.S. Government agency ID.

For further information, contact Timothy C. Finton, Executive Secretary of the Committee, at (202) 647-5385.

Dated: May 26, 1998.

Timothy C. Finton,

Executive Secretary.

DEPARTMENT OF STATE

[Public Notice No. 2834]

Advisory Committee on Private International Law Study Group on the Protection of Incapacitated Adults

The Hague Conference on Private International Law, of which the United States is a member state, is developing a convention to deal with the protection of incapacitated adults. This convention is being patterned after a convention related to the protection of children adopted by the Hague Conference at a diplomatic session in October, 1996 (the Convention on Jurisdiction, Applicable Law, Recognition, Enforcement and Cooperation in Respect of Parental Responsibility and Measures for the Protection of Children).

At a meeting held on September 3-12, 1997, a Special Commission of the Hague Conference adopted for consideration at a diplomatic session a draft Convention on Jurisdiction, applicable Law, Recognition, Enforcement and Cooperation in Respect of the Protection of Adults. The diplomatic session to consider this draft will take place sometime in 1999. The United States and other countries may submit comments on the draft convention, which the Permanent Bureau of the Hague Conference will then circulate to all of the participating States in advance of the 1999 session.

The draft convention seeks to establish rules for jurisdiction and the law to be applied to proceedings to take measures for the protection of adults who are in some way unable to make appropriate decisions regarding themselves or their property. Such measures include the appointment of guardians with limited or general powers and the execution by an adult of powers of attorney or similar documents to become effective in the event of incapacity. The draft convention would set standards for recognition and enforcement by the States Party of the measures of protection to be covered. Finally, the draft convention would establish a system of cooperation between authorities to ensure that information is exchanged and appropriate action is taken. A copy of the draft convention and of the United States report of the meeting of the special commission are available to the public on request.

In order to ensure that the comments of the United States on the draft convention take into account the views of experts and interested persons and institutions, the Department is interested in receiving comments on the draft convention. In addition, there may from time to time be meetings, open to the public, for the purpose of an exchange of views and discussion of comments received.

Any person or organization who wishes to participate in the work of this study group and to receive documents and notices regarding meetings should contact Rosalia Gonzales in the Office of the Assistant Legal Adviser for Private International Law (L/PIL) to be placed on the mailing list. The address is: 2430 E St., NW, Suite #203, South Bldg.,
